VOL. CXV. No. 225. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1914. PRICE 2 CENTS

PROHIBITION WILL BE DEFEATED BY NOT LESS THAN 10,000 MAJORITY

Report From All Sections of The State Indicate a Victory For Local Self-Government In Election To be held Tomorrow

BIG MAJORITY IN ALEXANDRIA.

Eighth Congressional District Will Give 1500 Against State Wide Doctrine End of Bitter Fight Finds Local Optionists Confident. Claims of the Dry Element.

All indications point to the defeat of State wide Prohibition in the election to be held tomorrow.

From the most reliable sources of information that the Gazette has been able to secure, a majority of not less than 10,000 is predicted for Local Option. The Virginia Association for Local Self Government has sent out a statement in which they claim a majority of over 20,000. The prohibitionists claims a sweeping victory for their side.

Alexandria will give a large majority against the statewide doctrine. According to the estimates of people familiar with the situation the prohibition vote will be in the neighborhood of 300 out of a total of 1400.

It is expected that the eighth congressional district will be found in the Local Option column by a majority of not less than 1500. The counties which are expected to go dry are Fairfax and Louisa and both of these are said to be close.

Richmond, Sept. 21—In a statement issued last night by the Virginia Association for Local Self-Government, the claim is made that State-wide prohibition will be defeated at the polls to-morrow by a majority of 20,400 votes. The estimate, it was stated, is based upon detailed reports received from practically every voting precinct in the State, and is made with full allowance for overestimates and errors.

According to this statement local option will triumph over State-wide prohibition in every congressional districts except two. The Fifth and Third Congressional Districts are claimed by the largest majorities, while the First and Tenth Districts are conceded to the prohibitionists by narrow majorities.

The statement follows:

"Local option will win at the polls on Tuesday by an overwhelming majority. The campaign just closed has developed the fact that a very large majority of the voters of Virginia are in favor of local self-government and home rule. The campaign with its vilification and abuse inaugurated by State-widers has been to their undoing. Their methods will be decisively repudiated.

"A careful poll of the State by precincts by counties shows that out of a total estimated vote of 143,000 there are only two congressional districts that can possibly be carried for State-wide. These polls show that local option will carry the following majorities.

"Second District, 3,600; Third District, 4,650; Fourth District, 1,400; Fifth District, 4,800; Sixth District, 500; Seventh District, 1,100; Eighth District, 2,400; Ninth District, 3,400. Total majorty in eight districts, 21,850.

"The First District may go for prohibition by 600, and the Tenth District by 800, making a total in these two districts of 1,400. This shows that we will carry the State by 20,450 majority. Local option will carry the cities of Richmond, Lynchburg Roanoke, Danville, Petersburg, Norfolk, Newport News, Portsmouth, Alexandria and Bristol. The cities of Staunton, Fredericksburg, and Charlottesville are shown by our poll to be very close. The farmers who are always strongly in favor of local option will vote almost solidly for local option and against State-wide.

"The local option men of Virginia have a right to be proud of the great victory they will achieve on Tuesday This association wishes to extend to each and every one its sincere thanks for the voluntary and active assistance and co-operation rendered this organization during the strenuous campaign through which we have just passed, and we want to congratulate them on the splendid manhood, patience and self-restraint they have shown in treating stolidly and ignoring the vicious attack made upon them by State-wide prohibitionists. The overwhelming triumph of local self-government will be their reward."

Opposed to the claims of the local option forces is the sweeping statement of the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia that State-wide prohibition will win in nine of the ten congressional districts, and that only the Third District will return a local option majority. The Richmond vote, in this district, the prohibitionists claim, is the one uncertain factor, and strenuous efforts are being made to cut down the city's naturally large local option majority.

While nine of the ten congression-districts are claimed by the state-widers, the Anti-Saloon League has avoided estimates as to the majorities by which prohibition will win. The most recent estimate claims the State by 40,000 votes. Even ardent prohibitionists regard this figure as too high.

PLAN FOR WORLD PEACE.

"United States of Europe" Would Control Armanents.

Petrograd, Sept. 21.—An authorized spokesman of the Russian government, in an interview with a correspondent here, declared today that it might be desirable after the cessation of this war to follow the emperor's plans for world peace, as expressed in the calling of The Hague conference by establishing the "United States of Europe," which organization should have the power to control armanents.

There was no indication, however, in the speaker's words that there was any near chance of peace.

There is an immutable determination, the Russian government spokesmen said, that the present allies maintain their alliance, and, after peace is restored, should agree upon such terms that would prevent Germany from ever again becoming an arsenal of explosives, threatening European civilizations.

Emperor Nicholas, always prominent in peace movements, is in favor, his spokesman said of the "United States of Europe" plan. If the powers, in conference, could formulate a regulation of armaments Russia could spare millions annually for education, economic organization, road-making, the development of her agriculture, and so on. The emperor's representative concluded:

"There are elements in the immediate situation which press strongly toward a considerable continuation of the war."

RUSSIA CONTINUES TO ADVANCE

Austrians Overwhelmed by Daring Night Attack of Invaders.

MANY ARE PRISONERS

Przemysl Attacked in Three Separate Directions—Grodeck is Occupied—Austrians Burn Jaroslaw.

Petrograd, Sept 21—Further advance of Russian forces was announced by the war office today. A daring night attack, the culmination of a day's bombardment, overwhelmed the Austrian defenders of Dubiecko, on the San, and the Russian forces captured thousands of prisoners and a score or more of guns, together with large quantities of supplies left behind by the Austrians.

"Przemysl is now under attack from three separte directions," the war office statement declared. "The bombardment is continuing with our forces steadily advancing on the outer intrenchments. Grodeck, on the east of Przemysl, has been occupied. Sambor, to the south, has fallen before our armies, and we have established a line of further communication on the west through the capture of Dubiecko.

"The retreating Austrian forces burned Jaroslaw before their evacuation."

MADE TRIP TO FACTORY.

As the result of his recent trip to the Ford automobile factory in Detriot, Mich., A. M. Remschell, has acquired more of the needed knowledge relative to the care of the Ford car. While there he made a thorough study of the mechanism, and will impart this knowledge to all all owners and prospective owners of Ford cars tonight between 7:30 and 8 o'clock at the garage on north Fairfax street. All interested are invited to be in attendance and hear this talk.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Rev. Albert Jefferson, former pastor of the First Free Baptist Church at Portland, Me., has been indicted for illegal registration as a voter in the State election. It is alleged that although the minister has lived at Cape Elizabeth for two years, he registered as a voter in this city.

Anna Salacevitz, and James B. Crosser, are dead, as the result of eating toadstools in mistake for mushrooms. Nora B. Crosser, wife of one of the victims, is seriously ill having partaken of the poisoned fungi with her husband.

Answering criticisms of his action in marrying a second time within a year after his first wife died, Rev. C. S. Holden, sixty, of the Market Street Baptist Church, told trustees he was forced to it by women members of his congregation. The pastor explained that unmarried ministers are put in an embarrassing position; that some women were in the habit of squeezing his hand, many insisted on whispering endearments, and one really proposed.

Italy already has over 500,000 men under arms. The best of these troops are in camps and barracks in the Lombardy and Venetian provinces. A report from the Austro-Italian frontier says 300,000 Austrian troops are watching the Italian border. Trieste has been left with a garrison of only 20,000 men.

After losing his church in Wilmington, Del., and giving up his wife for love of Miss Vera Collins, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Collins, the Rev. Norfleet C. Lassiter, and the girl have eloped to Baltimore where they were married. Lassiter, who is 42 years old, came here with his former wife four years ago as pastor of the Delaware Baptist Church. Previously he was pastor of the Chester Avenue Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

ELECTION RETURNS

The Alexandria Gazette has arranged to receive the full returns from the election tomorrow. Special arrangements have been made with the Western Union Telegraph Co. for their full bulletins covering every city and county in the state. The bulletins will be received by special wire and will be given to the public by megaphone from the Gazette office.

It is expected that the returns will commence to come in about 7 o'clock and will continue to be received until the result is known.

The public is cordially invited to hear the returns in front of the Gazette office.

HOBSON AT OPERA HOUSE.

Big Crowd Hears Congressman Talk on Prohibition.

A large crowd heard Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson, deliver a scientific treatic on alcohol, repeat the story of how Hobson bottled up Cevera, and explain the reasons for his defeat by Oscar Underwood at the Opera House yesterday afternoon.

If Mr. Hobson told his audience how it felt to be kissed by a thousand women, why he preferred a soft political berth to the stern duties of a naval officer, how he can draw down $7,500 a year from the United States Congress while he is away eight months at a time delivering prohibition addresses and why Alabama repudiated state-wide prohibition after two years experiment, his address would have proven more interesting that the long dry and uncorroborated statistics which he furnished. Even the true story of his defeat by Underwood would have made his speech worth hearing.

The Rev. C. R. Strausburg, stepped into the limelight by an attack on the Alexandria Gazette, which seemed to be enjoyed by the audience. Mr. Strausburg got more applause in the ten minutes he spoke than Hobson did in his two hours address, for what the former did say had some direct bearing upon the subject to be voted on tomorrow.

CHASED BY NEGROES.

Alexandria Ladies Have Thrilling Experience at Late Hour Last Night.

Three ladies, residing on Royal street, between Cameron and Queen, who returned from Washington at 10:30 o'clock last night, found they were being followed by three negroes when they left King street and started north toward their homes. The negroes were gaining upon them, and the ladies, becoming frightened, started to run. They succeeded in reaching their homes where they were overtaken by their pursuers, who seized them. The ladies screamed, and their cries brought people out of their houses. The negroes fearing capture, released the terrorfied ladies and ran to Queen street and disappeared in an easterly direction.

A short time before a lady whose home is on north Pitt street, was proceeding toward her home, when three negroes began to chase her. She ran and fell helpless in her doorway. Her screams scared the negroes away. It is believed they are the same parties who pursued the women on north Royal street.

UNPRECEDENTED BATTLE OF WORLD

Terrible Slaughter of Men and Wanton Destruction of Property

PLIGHT OF GERMANS

Bombardment of Rheims Continues —Invaders Send Shells from Berlin by Railway for Heavy Guns.

Paris, Sept. 21—The battle of the Aisne, unprecedented in history for slaughter of men and destruction of property, entered its ninth day without any decisive advantage having been gained by either the assaulting allies or the strongly intrenched Germans.

The first definite news in three days from the allies' left, which is known to have been engaged in an enormous movement, is to the effect that a general attempt to outflank General Von Kluck has progressed to a point highly favorable to the allies. The battered German army, worn by incessant hammering every foot of the way in its retreat from the gates of Paris, is now in a perilous position. The shells of the heavy guns are being sent from Berlin with all possible speed to his assistance.

The bombardment of Rheims continued today with unabated fury. The heavy German guns, mounted on the heights three miles from the city, are knocking down the walls of the principal buildings of the town and many noncombatants have been killed. The Hotel de Ville, the museum, the subprefecture, and all neighboring buildings have been almost destroyed, it was announced today.

Only a few walls of the famous cathedral, erected in the middle ages, remain standing. The shells of the heavy German guns continue to reduce the great pile to a mere heap of ruins.

General Gallieni today declared commanding officers at the front reported it was obvious that the German fire was being directed intentionally upon the principal buildings

The effect of the German artillery fire upon the French and British troops has been terrible, it is admitted. Some of the heaviest German guns have been shelling the allied positions from a distance of sevn miles. All are cleverly masked. It is admitted that one of the largest guns, which has done great damage, is so successfully concealed that the allies have been unable to locate it.

VICTIM OF PRACTICAL JOKE.

Newly-Wedded Alexandrian Cruelly Treated by Companions.

Willie Pulman, of this city, is in a hospital in Washington critically ill of pneumonia, and his condition is causing his relatives great anxiety. The circumstances which, it is alleged, brought on the serious illness should prove a warning to practical jokers.

Young Pulman is 26 years old. He is a member of the crew of one of the government tugboats which plies between Washington, Alexandria and Indian Head. About two weeks ago he was married, and when he re-appeared on the tugboat as a benedict members of the crew concluded they would give him a hazing. According to Pulman's statement, he was thrown overboard, and after having been hauled out a powerful electric fan was turned on him. A few days later pneumonia developed.

NEW YEAR'S DAY SERVICES.

Israelites of Alexandria Gather in North Washington Street Synagogue Last Night.

Services appropriate to the Jewish New Year began at 7:30 o'clock last night in the Synagogue on north Washington street. They were conducted by Rabbi H. R. Richmond, of the Hebrew College, Cincinnati. The services were continued at ten o'clock this morning.

Rabbi Richmond's discourse was interesting and instructive and he was listened to with close attention. Among other things he said:

"Our efforts toward propagating true religion must not be in the form of antagonism towards creeds and faiths. Our task must be directed and accomplished along the lines of brotherhood and harmonious co-operation. Our efforts must be characterized by love, friendship and sympathy to our fellow-men, regardless of race or creed. True religion must be void of jealousy or rivalry. True service must be rendered with a heart pure and noble. True worship and prayer must be the expressed hope that our ideals for the betterment of mankind will be fully realized.

"It is the function of this day—the memorial day—to recall to our minds our duty to our people, as Jews, and our duty to mankind, as members of the human family. We cannot serve one without serving the other. We cannot be true Jews without we are true men. This day must serve us as a reminder of our short comings to our people, as Jews, and of our errors in our conduct toward our neighbors, as men. This day should stimulate us to renewed energy and vigor, to remain loyal to our banner, as Jews, and to live up to our highest ideals, as men."

Again Reported Dead.

London, Sept. 2.—The report that Emperor Franz Josef of Austria is dead was revived today in a dispatch to the Chronicle from Geneva.

The dispatch quotes a high official returning to Lausanne from Vienna as stating that the Emepror died a week ago, but the news was suppressed to avoid a revolution.

WHAT STARTED WAR IN EUROPE

Millions of Men Lined up at Present to Kill Each Other.

TERRIBLE SETBACK.

Civilization Thrown to the Winds—Will Take One Hundred Years to Recount History of Struggle.

London, Aug. 24.—(By mail to New York—What started this war in Europe? Everybody knows that millions of men are lined up to kill each other, that the civilization which Europe has been slowly building up since the dark ages has been thrown to the winds and that the situation is too big to either write or talk about, intelligently. It will take 100 years for history books to give the news. As General Fred Funston told me, just as I was hurrying away from Vera Cruz, for London. "There's only one bigger newspaper story that could happen on this earth and that would be another plant approaching ours with an inevitable collision two weeks distant." What started this biggest event the world has ever known?

The answer is: One litle lead bullet from a revolver in the hands of a Servian high school boy. And this bullet probably would never have been fired if an ordinary chauffeur had not lost his way in a little town in Bosnia. One little twist of a chauffeur's wrist, as he turned an automobile into a side street, when he should have remained on the main road; one little twitch of the right index finger on the triger of a revolver in the hands of a high school boy—they started this war in Europe.

WAR ON THE SEA.

German Cruiser Disables British Ship—Six Merchant Vessels Captured.

London, Sept. 21.—The British admiralty reports that the German protected cruiser Koenigsberg caught the British light cruiser Pegaus overhauling her machinery in Zanzibar harbor yesterday morning and attacked and completely disabled her.

The British lost heavily, and the Koenigsberg was able to steam away.

The German cruiser, while of the same class as the Britsh, had more modern guns, which outranged those of her antagonist.

The British loss is given as 25 killed and 80 wounded.

The admiralty issued last night bulletins of important encounters in far-off waters. Successes and misfortunes were both chronicled impartially.

Montevideo, Uruguay, Sept. 21.—The British auxillary cruiser Carmania has sunk the German steamer Cap Trafalgar.

The Carmania, a Cunard liner, was in the service between New York and Liverpool until taken over by the British Government and converted into a warship.

A ton of coal and a barrel of flour were also given away. With ticket No. 470, Walter Marcey, of Cherrydale, became the owner of the Ford. H. B. Angelo, of Cherrydale with ticket No. 118, won the ton of coal, and William Henderson, of 901 7th Street, N. W., Washington, holding ticket No. 286, was presented with the barrel of flour. A neat sum was added to the fire department fund as the result.

READY FOR THE ELECTION

Contest Which Has Raged in Virginia During Past Six Months Will be Decided at the Polls.

The election which will decide whether conditions concerning the sale of liquor in Virginia shall remain in statu suo or that the state take its place in the dry column will be decided by a plebiscite tomorrow. The polls will be open at six o'clock in the morning and closed at six in the evening at the following places:

First ward—Odd Fellows' Hall.
Second ward—Building on the west side of Royal Street, near Cameron.
Third ward—Odd Fellows' Hall.
Fourth ward—Friendship engine house.

The names of the judges of the election were published in the Gazette last week.

All places in which liquors are sold will close at six o'clock this evening and remain closed until six o'clock Wednesday morning.

There will be more interest manifested in the settlement of the issue now before the people than is shown on ordinary occasions. Generally but few persons hang about the polls, but, from all that can be learned, males and females will be turned out on the occasion. It is said that children will be conscripted and made to pose as object lessons.

The campaign has been tedious, and charges and countercharges have been made by the defenders of statewide prohibition and those who prefer to allow each community to say whether or not liquor shall be sold in its midst. It is hoped everything will be done decently and in order and that nothing unseemly occur at or near the polls.

PEACEMAKER IS KILLED.

Alexandrian Tried to End Fight at Monroe And Was Killed.

John T. Edwards, aged 27, who resided on the Washington turnpike on the confines of Alexandria, employed as a car repairer at the Southern divisional terminal at Monroe was killed yesterday morning when he attempted to settle a drunken brawl in a pool room near the Monroe station.

Several men were engaged in a fight and Edwards, who was waiting for a train, was asked to attempt to settle the disturbance. As he walked in the door he fell dead with a pistol shot in his heart. A coroner's jury held Hubert Shelton, of Monroe, without bail. He was taken to the Amherst county jail. The shot seems to have been a wild one and was not intended for Edwards. The dead man was survived by a widow and three children.

PROPOSED RATE CHANGES.

Alexandrians Will Appear Before State Corporation Commisison.

Representatives of Alexandria's commercial bodies and several merchants will go to Richmond Wednesday to attend the session of the State Corporation Commission which will take up the proposed changes in rates charged by the express companies operating in the state. Alexandria is virtually interested in this subject on account of the heavy express shipments from this city.

The question of increased rates for the express companies came before the commission last spring at which time a delegation of Alexandria business men were present. At that time the express companies were not prepared to submit complete tariffs showing all the proposed changes so that an intelligent study of increases could be made by the rate experts of the various commercial bodies throughout the state.

The commission will meet at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and several days will be devoted to the hearing.

While his office will be in Richmond, he will continue to make his residence in this city. Mr. Wedderburn was a candidate in the last two elections for state senator from this district and two years ago ran aginst J. Taylor Ellysin, for lieutenant governor of the state.

The position is said to pay $2,000 per annum.

R. S. MUMFORD KILLED

Body of Young Man Found in Old Canal Basin This Morning.

The police are investigating the death of Raymond S. Mumford, a young white man, whose body was found at an early hour this morning, underneath a bridge that crosses the abandoned Alexandria canal at extreme northeastern section of the city, and near the plant of the Old Dominion Glass Company. While the authorities are inclined to believe that Mumford met his death from a fall, the family of the dead man suspect foul play and have asked for the fullest investigation of the facts surrounding his death. Dr. T. Marshall Jones, city coroner, has ordered an inquest to be held at 8 o'clock tonight at Wheatley's undertaking establishment.

The jury will be composed of J. D. Brown, H. E. Webb, James D. Martin, J. Wm. May, J .Fred Birrell, and P. M. Bradshaw.

Mumford, who is 25 years old and unmarried, lived at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Mumford, 510 Queen street. He left home yesterday morning to go on a fishing trip. Instead of going down the river as anticipated, he joined some companions and went to an ark in the northeastern section of the city, where he is thought to have spent the day. Last night he went to the house of Mrs. Teresea Milstead, in Alexandria county, just beyond the city limits, where he secured supper. According to the inmates of the house, he was intoxicated when he left the house and started toward Alexandria. His movements after leaving the Milstead house have not been traced.

When found Mumford was lying on his face at the bottom of the canal basis. His face was resting on a brick and was mashed in as if he had fallen from the embankment.

The path leading to the bridge is a narrow one and makes an abrupt turn when within 10 feet from the bridge. It is regarded as a dangerous place to walk especially at night. The distance from the top of the bluff where the path crosses to the bottom of the canal basin is 20 feet.

According to Mumford's family, the young man had a considerable sum of money on his person when he left home yesterday.

POLICE COURT.

(Justice H. B. Caton Presiding)

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

THE LAST WORD IN THE CAMPAIGN.

There is little more to be said before the election tomorrow which will decide the question as to whether Virginia will have State-Wide prohibition or Local Option. Practically every voter in the state has made up their minds on this important question and will register their conviction at the polls tomorrow. And we are content to rest our case with the people.

Frankly we will regret if our anticipations of the continued prosperity of Alexandria and Virginia is to be stopped by the menace of state wide prohibition. But whatever is the result we feel that we have done our best for our city and its people. The task has neither been a pleasant or profitable one. We have lost subscribers and advertisers by our stand for local option. We have felt the unmerited and unjust attacks of men who, having little or nothing to lose by a radical change in our methods of taxation have delighted in inflaming their supporters by passionate utterances against us because we had the courage to fight against a principal which we feel would be most injurious to this community.

Looking back over the campaign we are gratified that the friends of local option, have been temperate in all things. On the other hand the intemperate remarks, the revilings and cursings, the abuse from unbridled tongues, has come from pulpits or from men who wear the cloth of God.

WE LIVE AND LEARN.

Some commentators on the Bible, for reasons not clear to their readers, have from time immemorial attempted to prove that the great St. Paul was physically a pigmy. Some say he was red-headed, others that he was a victim of strabismus (squint-eyed), and that his bodily appearance was repulsive. The same writers admit he was a member of the Jewish Sanhedrin, and it is a well-known fact that no odious specimens of the genus homo could be numbered with that august tribunal.

The great Apostle in one of his letters speaks of a thorn which he carried in his flesh. He fails to tell us the nature of this chronic irritation, although some enthusiastic writers have made positive assertions that his annoyance was caused by this and that thing.

A champion of statewide prohibition in a letter to the Richmond Virginian unhesitatingly says that the illustrious propagator of Christianity had a weakness for stimulants, and that was undoubtedly the thorn of which he complained and prayed thrice for its removal.

There is an adge to the effect that the Bible is like an old fiddle, which can be made to play any tune. This seems to be true when the instrument falls into the hands of certain enthusiasts.

DESTRUCTION OF THE RHEIMS CATHEDRAL.

That men are no better now, after the preaching of the gospel for nearly ninetee hundred years, is shown in the lives of individuals as well as nations. About five hundred years before the birth of the Prince of Peace the beautiful temple of Solomon at Jerusalen was razed by the Babylonians and the vessels of silver and gold carried awy. The structure was the pride of the Israelites, and those who survived the capitivity of seventy years and returned to their own country wept when they realized that the new temple which was being constructed was to fall so far short of the original structure.

The beautiful Cathedral at Rheims, which had been surveyed and studied for years by tourists, with its priceless pictures and statuary, is, we are told, now a mass of ruins. It had been the target of German gunners. This imposing structure was founded in 1211, and was one of the most magnificent sepecimens of early gothic architecture in the world. The cathedral was famous as the edifice in which the kings of France were crowned.

The great Temple of Diana at Ephesus was destroyed by a young man in order to achieve notoriety. The cathedral of Notre Dame at Rheims has been demolished in order to show the skill of invaders and the great power of the projectiles which they can bring into play.

CATON FOR PROHIBITION

Police Justice Tells Bible Class Evil Effects of Saloons.

Police Justice Harry Caton yesterday morning made an address to the members of the Wesley Bible Class of the M. E. Church South at the Young Peoples Building on Statewide Prohibition.

In opening his address he stated that the people were very much excited over the 50 or 60 cases of typhoid fever that existed in Alexandria and made every effort with antitoxine, etc., to stop the spread of the disease, but there existed, here a disease of drink with 300 cases of delirium tremens caused by it, with no antitoxine for its eradication.

He said that during his 12 years as police justice there had come before him 17,000 men, women, and children, charged with every crime known to criminal law; that of the number over 200 had met violent death; that 65 per cent or approximately 11,000 of them came up before him was attributed directly or indirectly to drink; that out of 12 or 14 murders in that time, one only did not happen in or near a saloon.

He said that from 3,000 to 4,000 men and women had been sent to jail by him, caused directly or indirectly by drink; that from 100 to 150 wives come to him every year asking his help in making their drinking husbands support them.

He said that a city that could not exist without the liquor revenue was built upon the worst foundation.

He said even if the tax rate should be increased, as the liquor people claim, the rate would not be over 2 1-2 per cent on $100. What citizen would not be willing to pay that?

He said that the sale of cocaine when he went into office was almost as great as whiskey, but that had been prohibited by law, and the sale had stopped.

DROWNS IN POTOMAC RIVER.

Frederick, Md., Sept. 21.—William H. Hunter, 63 years old, near Lucketts, Va., was drowned in t he Potomac river, near Licksville, Saturday.

He was on his way home from this city and in attempting to cross the river in a rowboat near Knoxville, it is supposed, fell into the water and was unable to get out. When he did not return home, search was made and his body found.

TERROR IN KANSAS CITIES.

Topeka, Kans., Sept. 21.—Terror grips the residents of five Kansas cities every Sunday night now as the result of a series of crimes in which both men and women have been the victims. The latest appearance of this mysterious culprit was in Lawrence.

While two girls and their escorts were returning home in Lawrence they were halted by an unknown unmasked man with a revolver and were commanded to march up an alley.

In a dark corner the four young people were compelled to line up while the girls removed their stockings. With these their escorts were compelled to blindfold them. A stocking from each girl was then used to blindfold the men. Helpless, the men were forced to sit down by a telephone pole, and were told they would be killed if they uttered a sound or made a movement. Atrocious attacks were then committed.

Coming as it did, while the town is filling up with thousands of students who attend the University of Kansas, the crimes frightened hundreds until they will not venture out after nightfall.

Similar crimes have been reported from Lawrence, Atchison, and Fort Scott.

CARDINALS WIN AGAIN

Take White Sox Into Camp by Score of 11 to 2.

The third game of the series for the championship of Alexandria between the Cardinal Athletic Club and the White Sox teams was played yesterday the game ending as follows. Cardinals, 11; White Sox, 2.

Lawrence Padgett pitched the first inning and put the first two batters E. Hayden and Wells—out on easy grounders; V. Hicks made a home run by the ball "acting foolish" and hiding in the grass in left field after getting a tap from him. Williams hit a safety in this inning, but died on the sack when Max Hicks was fielded out at first. Tom Sillex was behind the bat during the first inning and caught well for a youngster.

V. Hicks was the day star for his team, fielding his position in good shape and scoring both runs for the Sox. Mc Carthy who finished the game for the Sox had a good delivery but the big lead was two much for him to overtake. Williams, A. Hayden, Rosey Hayden, Wells, Wentzel, Peverill, Smoot, and Achiles de Mar played fine at times, but the Cardinal had their wrecking crew in the line up during the game.

Eddie Thompson was on the firing line for the Cardinals for five innings and pitched air tight baseball and was never in trouble. Walter Napoleon Allensworth was in the box the three final innings and let the heavy hitting Sox down with one hit.

Kid Devers was at his best at the shortstop post and mowed his rivals down in record time when the ball was hit to his territory and he also rapped the horsehide good and hard at his turn to bat. Dug Merchant on first base played his part in great shape.

Nugent, at second; George Allensworth covering the third sack; Snowden in the left field shade; Baur, with his back to the north and face to the south in center field, raced several hard chances, and got them, too; and last but not least, Joe Owens, the original Cardinal, all put up a classy game. William McBride, star all around athlete, was behind the plate and caught a great game. Mac's batting and rich brogue dialogue with the fans was one of the features of the contest, the other fielding feature was Dick Snowden's running catch of Rosy Hayden's foul fly in the seventh inning with two men out.

Runs made by Cardinals—Merchant, 2; Owens 2; Snowden, 2; Bauer 2; McBride 2 and Nugent, 1

White Sox— Victor Hicks, 2.

Umpires, Messrs . Edward O'Brien and Luther Sutherland.

The members of both teams were supplied with an abundance of artesian well water by John Ewald, Esq. which was inclosed in airtight and dust proof casks.

For a good many months I had trouble with my stomach and found it necessary to eat sparingly," writes Mrs. Bernice Wyandt, Lima, Ohio. "There was a dull and heavy feeling in my stomach after eating that was most uncomfortable. I was also annoyed by frequent headaches. After taking a number of medicines without benefit I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and found they were just the thing. Two bottles of them rid me of this complaint." For sale by all dealers.

ANTHRACITE COAL

We strongly urge our customers to take in their winter's supply of fuel early.

Coal mined in the summer and early fall months is generally more carefully prepared and the supply is more certain at this time than it might be later this year.
